

1. The initial framewire has two photos of Kanye
 - Photos slide away from each other and off of the webpage when clicking the center to reveal intro text.
2. The timeline will pan horizontally to progress from 2005 to 2015.
 - The mobile version will be a swipe to each frame instead.
3. Hovering over a point on the timeline will cause a photo and a quote to appear.
 - The quote will automatically appear on the timeline in mobile.
4. Clicking a point on the timeline will be expanded to a broader explanation of the quote.
5. Snippets of music will play via a user-controlled music player at the top of the explanation box.
