

The base will be a horizontal timeline, moving depicting Kanye West since his debut album, reflecting on the parallels of his career and life.

As we progress through the timeline, we'll see the physical transformation of West. Aside from aging, we'll see his change in fashion, things that make him tick and even when he chooses to smile and not smile.

Break down West's form of expressions through his music to show the change in his content over the years with short audio snippets playing as the timeline progresses.